The present GTC shall prevail over any other document.

3. WARNING STATEMENT

The sale of Items on the Website is reserved exclusively for retail sale and to private individuals.

In no case may the Website be used by Customers who are professional sellers, alone or in a group, regardless of the method used for the marketing of their products (online marketplaces, shopping galleries, broker, brick and mortar stores in particular). Accordingly, the Customer acknowledges and accepts that the Items can only be purchased in quantities corresponding to the average buying needs of a consumer, both in terms of the number of Items ordered in a single order and in the number of individual Orders corresponding to the usual quantity purchased of the same product by an average consumer. MAJE reserves the right to refuse an order clearly placed by a professional selling Customer.

Every Customer declares to be informed of the unreliability of the Internet network, especially in terms of data transmission security, non-guaranteed continuity in access to the Website, and non-guaranteed performance in terms of volume and speed of data transmission and spread of viruses.

MAJE warns each Customer about the need to implement a solution and security measures on his/her computer or portable or mobile devices in order to prevent the spread of viruses.

4. CREATION OF A CUSTOMER ACCOUNT

Any MAJE Customer may freely create a customer account at no charge through the "Create an account" section.

A customer account is created by the Customer by completing the form offered to him/her for his/her identification data.

This account is strictly personal to the Customer and allows the Customer to identify himself/herself before validating each Order.

During the creation of the Customer account, the Customer enters the data allowing his/her identification under his/her full responsibility, controls, and directions and commits to provide complete, accurate, and up-to-date information and to not usurp the identity of a third party or hide or modify his/her age.

During the creation of a customer account, the Customer chooses his/her username (email) and password. If the chosen username is already assigned, the system requires the Customer to choose another one.

The usernames and passwords are personal and confidential. While MAJE takes all useful precautions and is committed to protecting the personal data of its Customers, the Customer is informed of the need to keep his/her password secret and not to disclose it to a third party for any reason whatsoever.

A Client who suspects the use of the username and password by a third party must immediately alert MAJE in order for his/her password to be changed and/or to choose to have his/her customer account closed.

MAJE reserves the possibility to close any customer account and accordingly refuse any sale to a Customer in the event of a payment default on one or more previous Orders.

In this case, MAJE shall send an email to the Customer concerned at the address indicated by him/her during the creation of his/her customer account informing him/her of the disabling of his/her username and password and the closure of his/her account. The Client shall be given a reasonable notice period of eight (8) calendar days to possibly express his/her comments with MAJE, without prejudice to the suspension of his/her Account during the notice period.

In general, the Customer is informed that his/her account may be closed following the Customer's first request submitted to MAJE by email.

5. CHARACTERISTICS OF THE ITEMS

The Items available for sale are those that appear on the Website. The offers are valid as long as they are visible on the Website.

They are offered within the limit of availability indicated on the Website.

MAJE reserves the right to remove from sale any Item on this Website at any time and/or replace or modify any information associated with the Items on this Website.

If an Item is unavailable, after his/her Order is placed, the Customer shall be informed by email. His/her order shall then be automatically cancelled, and the brand commits to make the refund as soon as possible.

The Items on sale on this site are only available for delivery in Switzerland.

The characteristics of the Items sold on the Website (photographs, graphics, and descriptions of the Items, etc.) are given as a guide only and may vary over time. Only the visual of the Item displayed at the time of the Order should be taken into account by the Customer. The Item characteristics and visuals are non-binding contractually.

In case of errors or omissions relating to the description of an Item, MAJE's responsibility shall be limited to the reimbursement of reasonable costs incurred by the Customer for sending the Item back.

6. ORDERING OF ITEMS

Every Order entails an obligation of payment.

The Customer declares to be at least 18 years of age and to enjoy legal capacity or, if the Customer is a minor, guarantees to have obtained parental permission to place his/her Order.

To place an Order, the Customer must follow the online purchase process (<https://ch.maje.com/en/help-and-faq/faqs.html>) and click on "proceed" to submit the Order.

Payment for the Order constitutes acceptance of the present GTC, the price of the Items, and the content of the Order.

After validation of the payment, MAJE sends an Order confirmation email to the Customer.

Every Order is subject to MAJE's prior acceptance and is definitively confirmed only after the Customer's receipt of an email confirming the shipment of the Item(s).

Any Order may be refunded should it occur that the conditions under which it was placed breached the present GTC.

If the Customer does not receive any email following his/her Order, it is up to his/her responsibility to contact MAJE customer service according to the procedures described in article 14 of the present GTC.

In no case may MAJE be held liable for an input error or transmission of an input error attributable to the consumer and preventing the delivery of the confirmation email and/or Items.

It is recommended that the Customer print his/her Order confirmation email.

For any questions relating to the tracking of an Order, the Customer must consult his/her customer account on the Website or contact customer service according to the procedures described in article 14 of the present GTC.

7. PRICES OF THE ITEMS

The prices are indicated on the Website in Swiss francs, inclusive of all taxes, excluding shipping costs.

They take into account of the VAT and any applicable reductions on the day of the Order.

All new taxes or contributions, particularly environmental, may be passed onto the selling price of the Items.

The prices of the Products exclude delivery costs (carriage, packing, and preparation of the parcel according to the amounts in force).

The amount of shipping costs is specified on the Website before validation of the Order.

MAJE reserves the right to modify the prices of the Items at any time. The Items are charged on the basis of the rates in force at the time of the validation of each Order.

The price charged for the Items is therefore the price indicated at the time of the Order.

8. PAYMENT FOR THE ORDER

Every Order entails an obligation of payment by bank card using a bank account with a sufficient balance or by PayPal. The Order is final only as from the date of full payment of the price and the costs associated with the Order.

The price charged to the Customer is the price indicated in the Order confirmation sent to the Customer by email.

The Order is payable immediately, by bank card (CB, Visa, MasterCard, American Express) or payment account (PayPal).

Once the Order is shipped, the Customer is informed by email that his/her invoice including delivery costs and applicable VAT is accessible online on the customer account

Transactions carried out on the Website are entrusted to a secure online payment platform HIPAY, whose registered office is located at 6 Place du Colonel Bourgoïn, 75012 Paris, Tel.: + 33 (0)1 73 03 89 34 and email: contact@hipay.com.

This solution presents highly secure pages for the input of payment data: card number, expiry date, and security code.

This platform encrypts and then transmits the payment data to the bank in complete confidentiality and makes them inaccessible to third parties.

It is possible for the Customer to save his/her bank data on his/her account. The data in this case remain encrypted and inaccessible.

9. TERMS OF DELIVERY

If this new deadline is not respected, the customer may send an email to MAJE to request a refund for his/her Order.

The contract and therefore the sale shall be considered terminated upon MAJE's receipt of the email or a letter by which the Customer informs it of his/her decision unless the delivery occurs between the sending and receipt of the email or the letter from the Customer.
